INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Board of Directors
Youable Emotional Health Services
Richfield, Minnesota

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Youable Emotional Health Services (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Youable Emotional Health Services as of June 30, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Youable Emotional Health Services and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Youable Emotional Health Services' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Youable Emotional Health Services' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Youable Emotional Health Services' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Fund Accounting

In order to observe the limitation and restrictions placed on resources available to Youable, the accounts are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure whereby resources are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into net asset groupings established according to their nature and restrictions. A description of the groupings is as follows:

Net Assets without Donor Restrictions – Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor-imposed restrictions. The governing board has designated, from net assets without donor restrictions, net assets for an operating reserve.

Net Assets with Donor Restriction – Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Youable reports contributions restricted by donors as increases in net assets without donor restrictions if the restrictions expire in the reporting period in which the revenue is recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Tax

Youable is a nonprofit corporation as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and exempt from federal income taxes on related income accordingly. Youable is also exempt from state income taxes under similar provisions in the Minnesota Statutes. Youable has elected to adopt guidance in the income standard regarding the recognition and measurement of uncertain tax positions. Youable follows the accounting standard for contingencies for evaluating uncertain tax positions. The adoption of this standard has no effect on the financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash consists of cash, money market accounts, and all highly liquid securities purchased with an original maturity of 90 days or less. Cash and cash equivalents are stated at cost which approximates fair value.

Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Credit Losses

Receivables are recorded at amounts billed and are generally due when billed. Youable has tracked historical loss information for its accounts receivable and compiled historical credit loss percentages for different aging categories. Management believes that the historical loss information it has compiled is a reasonable basis on which to determine expected credit losses for accounts receivable held at June 30, 2025 and 2024 because the composition of the accounts receivable at those dates are consistent with that used in developing historical credit-loss percentages. Additionally, management has determined that the current and reasonable supportable forecasted economic conditions are consistent with the economic conditions included in historical information. As a result, the historical loss rates have not been adjusted for differences in current conditions or forecasted changes. Accordingly, the allowance for credit losses at June 30, 2025 and 2024 totaled $166,592 and $102,500, respectively.

Changes in the allowance for credit losses for receivables are as follows for the years ended:

	June 30,
	2025	2024
Allowance for Credit Losses, Beginning of Year	$ 102,500	$ 277,226
Provision for Credit Losses	343,784	1,512,179
Charge-offs	(279,692)	(1,686,905)
Recoveries	-	-
	$ 166,592	$ 102,500

Property and Equipment

Equipment in excess of $1,000 is recorded at cost if purchased or at estimated market value at date of contribution if donated. If donors stipulate how long the assets must be used, the contributions are recorded as restricted support. In the absence of such stipulations, contributions of property and equipment are recorded as unrestricted. All equipment purchases less than $1,000 are expensed. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis over the following estimated useful lives of the assets:

Buildings and Improvements	5 – 33 Years
Leasehold Improvements	3 – 10 Years
Furniture and Office Equipment	3 – 7 Years
Automobiles	5 Years

JUNE 30, 2025 AND 2024

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Fiscal Agency Receivable and Payable

An asset and/or liability is recorded for certain assets for which Youable acts as an agent. The related agreements have stipulations that the assets be passed on to certain individuals or entities as directed by the sponsoring organization. Fiscal agency transactions resulted in a net receivable of $24,118 and $1,930 at June 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Revenue and Revenue Recognition

Youable recognizes contributions when cash, securities or other assets, an unconditional promise to give, or a notification of a beneficial interest is received. Conditional promises to give, that is, those with a measurable performance or other barrier, and a right of return, are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been substantially met.

Youable records contributed nonfinancial assets at fair market value at the date of donation. Youable's policy related to contributed nonfinancial assets is to utilize the assets given to carry out the mission of Youable. If an asset is provided that does not allow Youable to utilize it in its normal course of business, the asset will be sold at its fair market value as determined by appraisal or specialist.

Net Service Revenue

Client and medical assistance fees are recorded at standard hourly rates. When the services are rendered, discounts are recorded to reduce client fees for allowable discounts based on the difference between the usual and customary charges and the clients' ability to pay, as determined by a sliding fee scale. Discounts are also recorded for contractual discounts as negotiated with third-party payors and medical assistance. Charity services are defined as services that Youable discounts or provides for free to under-insured or un-insured clients to assist them in receiving treatment. Charity services also include client service Youable provides in excess of contractual funding limits. Youable elects to continue to serve clients once funding is exhausted.

Government Grants and Contracts

Government grants and contracts are recorded as contributions. Revenue is earned when eligible expenditures, as defined in each grant or contract, are made. Funds received but not yet earned are shown as refundable advances. Expenditures under government contracts are subject to review by the granting authority. To the extent, if any, that such a review reduces expenditures allowable under these contracts, Youable will record such disallowance at the time the final assessment is made.

Unemployment Compensation Self-Insurance

Youable has elected to self-fund their unemployment claims through reimbursing the State of Minnesota based on actual unemployment claims paid by the State to former Youable employees.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Functional Allocation of Expense

The costs of program and supporting services activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of activities. The statements of functional expense present the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefitted.

Functional expenses have been directly coded to specific functions whenever possible. Expenses which cannot be directly identified to a specific function are allocated between program services and supporting services based on an analysis of personnel time and space utilized for the related activities.

Leases

Youable determines if an arrangement is or contains a lease at inception. Leases are included in right-of-use (ROU) assets and lease liabilities in the statement of financial position. ROU assets and lease liabilities reflect the present value of the future minimum lease payments over the lease term. The operating lease expense is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Youable does not report ROU assets and leases liabilities for its short-term leases (leases with a term of 12 months or less). Instead, the lease payments of those leases are reported as lease expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Youable maintains cash balances at Bremer Bank which is insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation up to $250,000. Youable also maintains an insured cash sweep (ICS) account at Bremer that divides the money on deposit in to amounts not exceeding $250,000 with any one financial institution at the end of each business day.

Youable is also subject to risk with respect to concentration of accounts receivable and net service revenue, which is dependent on a series of contracts with third-party payers. This is typical in the industry in which Youable operates.

Subsequent Events

Youable has evaluated the effect that subsequent events would have on the financial statements through December 19, 2025, which is the date financial statements were available to be issued.
